LITTLE PIMPLES ON FACE, NECK

And Hands. Became Scaly and Skin Was Sore. Ashamed To Go Out. Lasted Three Months.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"One night before retiring I was troubled with an itching and in the morning I found that my face was all broken out with little pimples, and then they came on my neck and hands. The pimples became scaly and my skin was so sore that I had to bathe it with cold water to keep the pain down, and I scratched and my face became erupted. I was so red and sore I was ashamed to go outdoors at all. It lasted about three months. I tried — and — to no purpose. A friend told me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I did, and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and one-half a box of Cuticura Ointment I regained my complexion, and was completely healed." ## GERMANY GIVES IN

She Promises Holland Not to Take Dutch Food
Ships

WHEN TAKING ENGLAND FOOD

Ultimatum from Holland
Was Backed by the Allies

London, Aug. 3.—The German government has given a pledge to Holland not to destroy or molest Dutch ships carrying foodstuffs to England, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Express. This division is the result of a visit to Berlin of Cornelius J. K. Van Aalst, president of the Overseas trust, and another Dutch commissioner.

The Express says Van Aalst presented an ultimatum to the authorities in Berlin to the following effect: Unless Germany agrees not to interfere with Dutch ships bound for England with food cargoes Holland will close her eastern frontier. Otherwise the entrance may stop Dutch imports from America and the Dutch colonies.

The trip of the Dutch commissioner was the result of representations by the entente that Holland was selling large quantities of foodstuffs in Germany while her food trade with England had almost ceased. Holland replied that trade with England was made dangerous by German submarines. Van Aalst, fearing reprisals by the entente, then undertook the trip to Berlin and after a series of conferences obtained Germany's acceptance of his demands.

IRISH PARTY'S THREAT SHAKES ASQUITH'S HOLD

London Believes That the Premier May
Retire Before Autumn
Session.

London, Aug. 3.—Newspaper comment yesterday attached great importance to the hint made by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons Tuesday that he might retire. Touching certain matters at the autumn session, the premier said: "I don't know who will be responsible."

"My observation has led me to believe that there is some anxiety even among some otherwise well-informed people as to the political power of the pope. Ordinarily that would be an extensive subject to consider in one night. Contemporary history has however afforded an illustration that should remove the last lingering suspicion of doubt from such anxious citizens.

"We Catholic Americans owe no political allegiance to the pope. He has no civil powers whatever over our activities. I am saying this deliberately, and without equivocation or reservation, and am asking you to accept it with the sincerity with which it is expressed.

"So long as religious liberty is practiced under the spirit of the constitution the Catholic would be the veriest ingrate who would not give his whole-hearted allegiance to this country. If we only look abroad therefore for the illustration to which I refer we will see Catholics of every country in Europe dying by the thousands for the flag of their nation. In some instances that flag typifies a country which has in the past promulgated and enforced discriminating laws against the Catholic church, and deprived Catholics of their just rights, and positively prescribed their freedom and happiness, but it is the flag of their country, and the Catholic's patriotism is a living virtue, and he feels impelled to respond to the call of patriotism and the bounded duty of his conscience.

"I think I voice the sentiments of the membership of the Knights of Columbus and of every intelligent Catholic in this country when I say that we deeply appreciate the spirit of tolerance and good feeling which for the most part exists among our non-Catholic brethren throughout the length and breadth of the land. Bishop Mora, the early Spanish bishop of Los Angeles, always alluded to his non-Catholic fellow-citizens as his 'separate brethren,' a most charming reference, which never failed to strike a responsive chord.

"We are furthermore not unmindful of the fact that elsewhere in foreign countries the religious line has been drawn sharp and hard, and very often it is the dead line of strife and bitterness. If any of my Catholic friends are doubting the accuracy of my opinion in this matter, particularly if he comes from Europe or any other part of the civilized world, let him go back there and compare the attitude of the non-Catholic of that country with the spirit which pervades the non-Catholic of the United States, and he will recognize the value of the conclusion at which I have arrived."

LLOYD GEORGE SEEKS SPECIAL COURTMARTIAL

British War Minister Would Punish Slandereers of High Officials in His Office, London Press Believes.

London, Aug. 3.—Much interest is being shown in the House of Commons lobby in the bill introduced by David Lloyd George, secretary for war, empowering him to set up a special court-martial to try certain allegations which have been made against a high official at the war office.

The morning newspapers discuss the subject guardedly. The Morning Post says: "It is a simple looking measure, but there is a great deal behind it. The allegations involved concern civilians more than soldiers."

SALE OF DANISH WEST INDIES IS NOT YET CONFIRMED

Copenhagen Messages Say Rigsdag Will Take Up the Question
Friday.

London Aug. 3.—Messages received here yesterday from Copenhagen say the Danish authorities have not confirmed the reports of the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States. The newspaper Politiken says the Rigsdag will hold a secret session on Friday when the government session will answer questions on the subject.

The newspaper Koebenhavn has started a campaign against the sale of the islands. The Danish officials are all reticent and a censorship on messages is being maintained.

FOR MURDER IN BOMB CASE.

Billings and Nolan Formally Arraigned in San Francisco.

San Francisco Aug. 3.—Warren K. Billings, ex-convict, and Edward D. Nolan, former labor leader, were formally charged with murder in the police court here Tuesday, following the police investigation in the bomb explosion that killed eight and wounded 40 during the San Francisco preparedness parade. Preparations were also made to place similar charges against Thomas J. Mooney, a labor agitator, and Rena Mooney, his wife. All the accused are in custody. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict that the bomb was placed with criminal intent. The jury definitely established the fact that eight were killed instead of nine.

HUGHES EAGER FOR THE FRAY

Is Much Pleased Over the Progress of the Campaign

REUNION OF PARTY
IS GRATIFYING

No Quarter, Henceforth, Is to Be Given to the Opposition

New York, Aug. 3.—Charles E. Hughes, highly gratified over the progress of the campaign and rejoicing at the signs everywhere apparent of party reunion, is eager for the real battle to begin. Chock full of fight and enthusiasm, he leaves for the West on Saturday. Henceforth the opposition need expect no mercy. The nominee spent yesterday morning in a tour of the shopping district and in informal conferences with Chairman Wilcox and other party leaders. He went to Bridgehampton yesterday afternoon.

Three courses, it is said, are open to the Progressive national leaders now gathering in Indianapolis to determine what shall be the future policy of the party. One course is to make a new presidential nomination, another is to give to all Progressives freedom to vote for anybody that pleases them, and the last is to endorse Wilson. As these leaders are all intensely anti-Republican, there is no possibility of an endorsement of Hughes. Mr. Hughes' endorsement of the Susan B. Anthony amendment has not served to change the president's mind on the subject of suffrage. A White House statement yesterday says that Mr. Wilson favors votes for women, but still believes the matter should be dealt with by the separate states. This decision is regarded as final.
